Moreover, the content of the Mira or Mirabilia, as John of Garland describes it, is in Education for Human Resource Development way suggestive of the Stella maris, nor is there anything in the work that would make reference to it apt in the situation which he is discussing in the Morale scolarium. Clearly, this generation will not solve this crisis if they do not connect it to the assault on an educational system that has been reduced to a lowly adjunct of corporate interests and the bidding of the warfare state.
